IT'S OFFICIAL

A distraught Alec Baldwin said on Friday there are 'no words to convey his shock and sadness' after accidentally shooting and killing the female cinematographer on the set of his new movie Rust, and that he was cooperating fully with the police investigation into what happened.

Officially Baldwin accidentally killed Halyna Hutchins, a 42-year-old married mother-of-two and the Director of Photography on his new movie on a ranch in Santa Fe, New Mexico, on Thursday at 1.50 pm.

As Reuters reported the husband of Halyna Hutchins is a corporate lawyer in Latham & Watkins' Los Angeles office.

Matt Hutchins joined Latham as an associate this year. Earlier he was an in-house lawyer at an entertainment company and practiced at Kirkland & Ellis and Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom, according to his LinkedIn profile.

We are not claiming anything but one interesting piece of information about one of the clients of Latham & Watkins!

Their client is Michael Sussman, the Clinton connected attorney just indicted by Bob Durham.

As Yahoo News reported last month a lawyer whose firm represented Hillary Clinton's campaign during the 2016 presidential election was indicted Thursday by special counsel John Durham on a single charge of making a false statement to the FBI.

Michael Sussmann, an attorney for the Perkins Coie law firm who previously represented the Democratic National Committee following the hacking of its servers by Russia during the 2016 campaign, is accused of lying "about the capacity in which he was providing allegations to the FBI" when he met with a top lawyer from the bureau in September 2016 and provided him information about potential ties between a Russian bank and computer servers in the Trump Organization.

While Trump hates may famously hate Alec Baldwin's impersonation of him on "Saturday Night Live." But the Hollywood actor still has a massive fan in the former secretary of state Hillary Clinton.

During her latest appearance on the "Tonight Show," Clinton said Baldwin's regular portrayal of her 2016 presidential election rival is "amazing."

"He keeps saying he's not going to keep doing it, but I'm glad he is," she told host Jimmy Fallon. Baldwin's expressions and body language are "perfect," she added.

Baldwin posted on social media Friday that he was in shock after the latest incident, writing, "My heart is broken for her husband, their son, and all who knew and loved Halyna."
